Wawanesa Mutual Insurance chooses Capgemini to partner on strategic systems renewal

End-to-end digital transformation will use Guidewire Core and Digital products

Paris, Winnipeg, Manitoba, and Foster City, Calif., September 19, 2018 – The Wawanesa Mutual Insurance Company, the largest Canadian Property and Casualty Mutual insurer, has retained Capgemini to guide their Strategic Systems Renewal program to its completion. The program employs Core and Digital products from Guidewire Software, Inc. (NYSE: GWRE), a provider of software products to Property and Casualty (P&C) insurers. This implementation is Capgemini's largest insurance core system transformation initiative in Canada.

"We will benefit from the leadership capabilities Capgemini can provide from its many years of experience with Guidewire and insurance industry delivery knowledge, both with us, and many other large organizations throughout North America," said Carol Jardine, President of Wawanesa Mutual's Canadian P&C Operations. "Our partnership will create more capacity within Wawanesa to deliver on our 2018-2020 strategy and we will see more results – faster – with the processes Capgemini will implement."

Wawanesa's business transformation covers the entire value chain with implementations of Guidewire InsuranceSuite™, Guidewire Rating Management™, Guidewire CustomerEngage™, and Guidewire ProducerEngage™. The objectives of the transformation are to streamline the way of doing business, accelerate speed to market, and reduce operational costs.

"The key to a successful implementation at Wawanesa is two-fold: true collaboration between Wawanesa, Guidewire and Capgemini as well as our using Capgemini's methodology which allows multiple workstreams to be underway simultaneously providing quicker time to market and more value," said Shane Cassidy, Managing Director, Insurance Business Unit, Capgemini.

Capgemini is also using its Applied Innovation Discover Center in Toronto to hold highly collaborative Strategic Assessment Workshops for Wawanesa. These workshops will establish governance and ensure leadership is fully aligned to a common vision and roadmap for Wawanesa's digital transformation. The Applied Innovation Discover Center is designed to encourage interaction and creativity and is integral to this transformation.

Mike Polelle, Chief Delivery Officer, Guidewire, said, "Capgemini is a leading systems integrator of Guidewire InsurancePlatform™ products and we look forward to another successful implementation as we team together on Wawanesa's digital transformation."
